The Clerk advised nothing received for this meeting.

21/059 Declarations of Disclosable Pecuniary and Non-Pecuniary Interests on items on the agenda.

None declared.

21/060 Public participation

A member of the public states that every organisation should have a constitution, the original licence between the council and Alresford Town Football Club (ATFC) was signed on the basis it was a member's club and not owned by any individual. All sports clubs must be regulated by HMRC. Request that NATC perform appropriate due diligence.

A representative of ATFC raised concerns of the dog fouling on the pitch and referred to item 21/061 and the request is to support player and supporter safety. Also raised the daily incidents of vandalism in the dugouts, which is a cost to the club. ATFC withdraw item 21/062

A representative of ATFC requested notification of meetings when they are subject of Agenda items. ATFC wish to work with the council when it comes to the licence and have submitted all information requested. The club is a community club and wish to start a U23 team to encourage local participation.

21/061 Approve Alresford Town Football Club install low fencing under crowd barrier.

The fencing would be like the tall mesh fencing already in situ, if not the same.
